1. Circumstances beyond the control of the parties and counsel have required a change in plaintiffs' representation. John M. Youngquist will substitute as plaintiffs' attorney for John Gigounas who must withdraw due to a medical condition making it impossible for him to continue in his representation of plaintiffs.

2. Mr. Youngquist has requested a continuance of the Case Management Conference of ninety days to inform himself on the case. The Court has provided a date of April 29, 2011 and both plaintiffs and the government stipulate to that date.

3. The parties further stipulate that the government's date to answer to the Complaint in this matter will be extended to March 29, 2011. The government is continuing in its efforts to obtain additional records from the IRS to complete its answer.

///

4. The Court had scheduled a Case Management Conference in this matter for January 21, 2011. The parties wish an opportunity to review the expected IRS materials to determine whether they may resolve this matter without further litigation.
